SPOKESMAN EMPHATICALLY DENIES JAPANESE INTENTION TO TAKE ANY ACTION AGAINST THE SETTLEMENT

Tense Shanghai Situation Followed By Sudden Military Activities

SHANGHAI, MARCH 16.

IT IS LEARNED THAT THE JAPANESE TRIED TO MARCH 120 ARMED TROOPS DOWN NANKING ROAD IN THE CENTRE OF THE INTERNATIONAL SETTLEMENT THIS MORNING. THE UNITED STATES MARINES, THROUGH WHOSE SECTOR THE ENTRY INTO NANKING ROAD RUNS, ANNOUNCED THAT THEY WOULD FORCIBLY RESIST THE JAPANESE TROOPS.

THEREUPON THE JAPANESE CANCELLED THE MARCH.

AFTER THE DECLARATION BY THE U.S. MARINES THAT THEY WOULD FORCIBLY RESIST JAPANESE TROOPS IF THE LATTER MARCHED THROUGH THEIR DEFENCE SECTOR THE SITUATION IN SHANGHAI BECAME TENSE AND FOREIGN MILITARY, NAVAL AND DIPLOMATIC AUTHORITIES WERE MOST BUSY HOLDING CONFERENCES.

TOURING THE FRENCH CONCESSION SHORTLY AFTERWARDS, REUTER'S CORRESPONDENT FOUND FRENCH TROOPS OUT IN THE MAIN POSITIONS ON THE BOUNDARIES WITH BAYONETS FIXED WHILE ARMoured CARS ARE ON PATROL WITH THEIR MACHINE-GUNS BARED AND MANNED.

JAPANESE ADVISED TO WITHDRAW

Bomb Incident In Road

Shanghai, March 16. At 1.20 p.m. today a cigarette tin bomb was thrown in Fukien Road while a Japanese military motor-car was alleged to be passing. Nobody was injured and no damage has done. Hitherto no arrests have been made.

Meanwhile, rumours of a Japanese coup in the International Settlement and French Concession, which have latterly been prevalent, have now been intensified by this incident which is feared may be used as an excuse for Japanese action.

French troops are manning the borders of the French Concession with bayonets fixed, and it is learned that all Japanese nationals have been advised by the Japanese authorities to withdraw from the French Concession and those sections of the International Settlement which are not under Japanese control.—(Reuter).

MACHINE-GUNS TRAINED

Shanghai, March 16. French troops with fixed bayonets are posting on the borders of the French Concession following the bomb throwing incident in Fukien Road this afternoon. Machine-guns are trained on strategic points in readiness to meet any emergency.

Although outwardly the city remains calm and quiet there is an undercurrent intensified by the fear of the Japanese in seizing this incident as a pretext to effect a military coup in the French Concession and the International Settlement.

A tension of nervousness prevails, and it is expected that martial law will be enforced this evening.—(International).

THE MILWAUKEE ROAD

Get rid of Disfiguring
Blemishes
this Easy Way

Nothing can be more distracting to a woman than ugly pimples, burning irritations or patches of blackheads or enlarged pores on the face or neck. Some resort to heavy powdering in an effort to hide them; whilst others cause the skin to become muddy-looking, coarse and blemished by using the wrong treatment.

To make your skin clear and healthy, to cleanse clogged facial pores, remove blackheads and pimples and to make your complexion clearer and smoother, use Cuticura.

Cleanse the skin with Cuticura Soap twice a day. Its luxuriant and mildly antiseptic lather is soothing and softening; washes away pore-deep dirt which causes blackheads, enlarged pores and ugly complexion defects.

To rid the skin of pimples, skin outbreaks, rashes or irritations use Cuticura Ointment direct on the affected part before washing with the soap. Its antiseptic action kills germs, soothes and heals and quickly clears the skin.

CARPENTERS QUARREL OVER TABLE MANNERS

A quarrel at the dinner table which led to an assault had a sequel at the Kowloon Magistracy when Wong Chee, 27, a carpenter, was charged before Mr. K. M. A. Barnett with causing bodily injuries to Wong Sing, a fellow carpenter.

Defendant alleged that Wong Sing objected to his table manners when they were having dinner on the night of March 13, and a quarrel ensued.

At the height of the quarrel, defendant was stated to have thrown his rice bowl at his friend. The bowl broke and defendant was then alleged to have slashed Wong Sing with a fragment.

Defendant plead guilty and that he had no intention of causing any harm to Wong Sing, but he was driven to strike him on the spur of the moment by his anger.

The Magistrate sentenced defendant to three months and further ordered him to sign a bond in the sum of $25 to be of good behaviour for six months.

JUDGMENT FOR PLAINTIFFS

Action For Mesne Profits

An action brought by the Sincere Insurance and Investment Co. Ltd., for possession and mesne profits in connection with No. 41 Village Road, ground floor, against Ko Pok-wook, was upheld by the Pains Judge, Mr. Justice R. E. Lindsell, in Summary Court yesterday.

Plaintiffs who were represented by Mr. H. N. Chau, were the owners of the premises which they let to defendant on a monthly tenancy under a verbal agreement. The tenancy terminated on March 3 and they now claimed possession of the premises as well as mesne profits from that date at $46 a month.

Defendant said the notice to quit was received by a fook of his, who left on the last day of the Lunar Year without mentioning it to him. He asked the Court to give him one month's grace, saying it was now very difficult to find premises.

Mr. Chau pointed out that defendant was not telling the truth. He must have known of the notice because some time in February he saw Mr. Ma, manager of the plaintiff firm, asking for an extension of time, which was refused.

On being questioned by His Lordship, defendant admitted that he did go and see Mr. Ma. His Lordship thereupon gave judgment for plaintiffs, with costs remarking, "what sympathy can you expect from the Court when you come here and tell a lot of lies." He also ordered that the premises be given up within 14 days.

Sgt. Bentley said that when he questioned defendant, the latter stated he put the tools in a barrel for safe custody but would help to locate them. The value of the tools in question was $250.

Sentence of one month's imprisonment was passed.

Thus Tung Sang, who described herself as an unlicensed hairdresser, when she was charged before Mr. R. Edwards at the Central Court yesterday for assaulting on Tang Yee.

Complainant appeared in court with a bruised face. She alleged that defendant assaulted her first with a pair of wooden clogs in Aberdeen Street, near Hollywood Road, on Monday.

After hearing evidence the magistrate fined defendant $5 and ordered her to sign a bond in a sum of $10 to be of good behaviour for a period of six months. She was further ordered to pay $2 amends to complainant.

Inspector Russell, who prosecuted, said accused was formerly employed by Mrs. Shereiber, who resided at the address in question, but was recently dismissed. On Tuesday morning, when the lady entered her dressing room, she noticed that her dressing table drawer had been forced open.

Cheung Man was arrested at No. 130 Reclamation Street upon information given by his brother, who was employed as a cook.

In passing sentence, His Worship also ordered defendant to be sent back to the country after serving the term.

Strellett appeared yesterday for the first defendant at the Kowloon Court and mentioned the matter of bail.

STAPLES SURPRISES

TWO SAUCES

Skilfully flavoured sauces will go a long way towards ensuring the success of a simple dish.

The basis of a large number of sauces is white sauce. From this foundation can be made such varieties as anchovy, caper, cheese, onion and parsley.

There are just one or two tips it would be as well to mention with regard to the making of white sauce. It is all-important that the butter and flour should cook together before the milk is added. Never use cold milk for the sauce.

WHITE SAUCE

Here is a recipe for white sauce which I have always found successful:—

Ingredients: 1 pint milk, 1oz. butter, 1oz. flour, 1 teaspoonful salt.

Put the butter into a small saucepan over gentle heat and gradually add the flour, stirring until free from lumps, then cook for two or three minutes.

Remove saucepan from fire and pour in the hot milk slowly, again stirring until the mixture is quite smooth.

Sprinkle in the salt and stir while the sauce comes to the boil, then simmer for just five minutes, stirring all the time.

HOLLANDAISE

Excellent sauce with fish. It must not be allowed to boil or it will curdle, so use a double saucepan.

Ingredients: 2oz. butter, 1 tablespoonful vinegar, 2 tablespoonfuls water, 2 yolks of eggs, squeeze of lemon juice, salt and pepper.

Heat water, vinegar and egg yolks together, stirring constantly until sauce thickens.

Reduce heat and add butter in small pieces, letting each piece melt before the next is put in, add lemon juice and seasoning to taste.

MUSHROOMS FOR FLAVOUR

A can of mushrooms may not be actual magic, but the delicious results savour of a cook who knows all sorts of tricks with flavours. Combine mushrooms with ordinary foods and the result is always gratifying, one's reputation as a cook growing by leaps and bounds.

MUSHROOM BROTH

You may use chicken stock, beef stock, canned soup or stock made from bouillon cubes but I prefer chicken stock. Put in a saucepan 4 cups stock, 1 cup mushrooms, broken in pieces, 1 onion, thinly sliced, 1 stalk celery, cut in small pieces, 1 teaspoon salt, a few grains pepper, and 1 clove, and boil slowly for ten minutes. Pour 1 cup cold water into a bowl and sprinkle 2 level tablespoons gelatin on top of water. Add gelatin to hot stock and stir until dissolved. Strain and chill. Serve with a spoonful of whipped cream on each cup.

MUSHROOM SAUCE

This gives the de luxe touch and the inimitable flavour good cooks strive for. Serve it with roasted or broiled beef.

Combine 4 tablespoons melted butter with 4 tablespoons flour. Brown slightly.

Add 1 cup beef or chicken stock and 1 cup of water.

Add 1 cup sliced panfried mushrooms. Heat thoroughly and quickly. Season with salt and pepper. Serve at once.

MUSHROOM AND RICE LOAF

Wash and boil 2 cups rice. Cook in butter the following:

1 cup chopped onion, 3 green peppers, chopped, 1 pimiento, chopped, and 1 cup mushrooms broken in pieces. Cook five minutes but don't brown.

Combine with the rice, 1 cup Italian cheese, 2 eggs,

1 cup whole wheat crumbs and 1 teaspoon salt. Bake in a buttered baking dish for 30 minutes at about 350 F.

MORE CASSEROLE DISHES

FORK HOT POT

Your family will enjoy this wholesome dish.

Ingredients: 1 spare rib of pork, 1 lb. skirt of beef, 1 lb. onions, 1 lb. potatoes, 4 carrots, 2 turnips, 2 parsnips, water, salt, pepper and a pinch of mixed herbs, a nut of dripping.

Cut the pork and skirt into small pieces and place in a hot pot with the sliced onions, carrots, turnips and parsnips.

The potatoes are best boiled and served in a separate dish.

Add the seasoning to the hot pot, and cold water to come up to half way of the pot. Put the dripping in cover with a lid and cook for three hours in a moderate oven.

The potatoes can be sliced and added one hour before the stew is cooked. Remove the lid for ten minutes before serving to brown the potatoes.

Serve hot, in the casserole.

TRIPE AND ONIONS

Tripe is nourishing and easily digested.

Ingredients: 2 lb. cleaned tripe, partly cooked—if uncooked, wash and scrape smoothly. Put the tripe into boiling water for three minutes, then remove and drop into cold water, repeat this twice. Cover with cold water and simmer for six hours, until very tender.

Remove the tripe, drain and cut into neat pieces, but into a saucepan with the onions, water and milk, and simmer for two hours. Season well, and thicken with a little flour mixed to a smooth paste with cold water.

Serve with toast round the dish.

BRISKET AND BACON

An unusual and tasty dish.

Ingredients: 2 lb. brisket of beef, pieces of ham or boiled bacon or cold left-over bacon, 3 onions, 2 carrots, a turnip, and celery, a tablespoonful of chopped parsley, a pinch of powdered sage, 1 pint water or stock, salt and pepper.

Brown the meat in the hot fat, then fry the bacon, remove and cook the sliced vegetables slowly for 20 minutes. Arrange the meat and bacon on the top and cook for half an hour, slowly with the lid on. Add the stock, chopped parsley and seasonings.

Cook slowly for 2½ hours with the lid on. Pour on to a large deep dish and serve with boiled potatoes.

FISH EN CASSEROLE

Heated up in a casserole, left-over fish makes a tasty dish.

Melt a little butter in a pan, and gradually add a tablespoonful of flour then 1 pint milk and water. Stir until it thickens, stir in two tablespoonfuls of anchovy essence, a little chopped parsley and a few drops of lemon juice.

Put into a casserole about 1½ lb. cooked cod, with the bones and skin removed, and flaked. Add pepper and salt, put on the lid and cook in a moderate oven for ½ hour.

Pour over the sauce and serve the fish in the casserole. Mashed potatoes are good with this.

CHEESE AND HAM TOAST

Toast two slices of bread, butter them, and keep hot. Chop finely three ounces of lean ham and grate three ounces of dry cheese.

Put a tablespoonful of butter into a double saucepan, and when melted add the ham and cheese. Stir until hot add a beaten egg, pepper, and salt if necessary. Stir until thick, and divide between the pieces of toast. Sprinkle with a little chopped parsley and serve at once. If a very savoury flavour is wanted, add a spoonful of piquant sauce or chutney to the mixture while cooking.

DATE PUDDING

We should make the most of dates. They are nutritious and cheap, and can be used for many pudding dishes.

First, for a family pudding.

Ingredients: 4oz. breadcrumbs, 3oz. flour, 3oz. shredded suet, a pinch of salt, spice and nutmeg and ground cloves, 2 eggs, 3oz. sugar, 1 teaspoonful of baking powder, 2oz. glace cherries, 1 tablespoonful of golden syrup, 4oz. dates, milk to mix.

Sieve the flour, salt and baking powder; add the cut-up dates and breadcrumbs, halved cherries, suet, sugar and treacle to the sieved ingredients. Stir in the beaten eggs and a little milk to form a stiff batter. Pour into a well-greased basin and steam for 2 hours. Turn out and serve with custard.

DATE JAM

Children will like this in sandwiches.

Ingredients: 4lb. dates, 2 packets of lemon jelly (in squares), 4oz. preserved or crystallised ginger, 2½ pints of water.

Cut the jelly into small pieces, add the stoned dates and ginger, and simmer in the water, stirring occasionally for one hour. Pour into dry jars, and seal at once.

Dates should be wiped with a cloth before being used, and the little woody tips must be removed.

SWEET PICKLE

Cold meat becomes a tasty dish served with this relish.

Ingredients: 3lb. dates, stoned and halved, salt, 1½oz. pickling spice, 4oz. ground cinnamon, 2 pints vinegar, ½lb. brown sugar a little more if a sweet pickle is liked.

Boil the vinegar and spices and sugar until syrupy. Place the stoned and halved dates in jars, then pour over the hot syrup. When cold, tie down and use after three months.

CHILD WELFARE WORK IN SINGAPORE

Funds Insufficient

Over 50,000 children attended the clinics attached to the creches run by the Singapore Child Welfare Society and over 25,000 children had been cared for in the creches during 1937.

These figures were revealed by Dr. R. D. Fitzgerald when he gave a review of the society's work during the past year at the annual general meeting of the society held in Government House recently. Lady Thomas presided.

Dr. Fitzgerald mentioned that the funds of the society were insufficient to supply one-tenth of the needs of the city outside those supplied by Government, the Municipality and St. Andrew's Hospital.

FRUIT AND FITNESS

Lord Mayor's National Campaign Proposal

Fruit and fitness was the main theme of a speech by the Lord Mayor of London, Sir Harry Twyford, at the livery dinner of the Fruiterers' Company at Haberdashers' Hall, E.C., recently.

Referring to the National Fitness Campaign, he said: "I suggest that the campaign might be advantageously linked up with that of Eat more fruit, to the benefit of both the community and the agriculturist."

"Various parts of the Empire produce enough health-giving fruit to supply our requirements, and so this becomes an Imperial as well as a national question."

"There is, however, ample opportunity for development in fruit culture at home, and I believe this would help us materially to solve the agricultural problem as much as the production of milk and butter, pigs and bacon."

AUTOGIRO FLIES IN HALL

German Invention Can Stay Still In Air

The German air-woman, Hanna Reitsch, flew an autogiro in a Berlin hall recently, states a special message from Berlin.

She took off from the centre of the floor and made a circuit of the hall, landing on the floor again.

The machine, which was designed by Heinrich Focke, can ascend and descend vertically, remain stationary in the air and fly backwards and forwards.

The propellers are the side of an ordinary fuselage and work horizontally. The machine has attained a height of 8200ft. and has flown at 74 m.p.h.

GREAT BRITAIN TO RUSH AIR DEFENCE PROGRAMME

HITLER FLIES TO MUNICH

Munich, March 15. Chancellor Adolf Hitler returned to Munich yesterday evening from his trip to Austria. He arrived by air from Vienna and landed at the Munich airport at Oberwiesenthal, where he was welcomed by party and state dignitaries.

The Chancellor has promoted General Von Rundstedt to the command of the army group at Berlin and General Von Boeck, commander of the 8th Army Corps, to the rank of Colonel General.—(Transocean).

MILITARY PARADE

Vienna, Mar. 15. Before the military parade took place this afternoon Herr Adolf Hitler, German Chancellor, laid a laurel wreath at the Vienna War Memorial, and as he emerged from the crypt 7,000 people on specially erected stands and many thousands more lining the streets broke into wild cheers.

The military parade, which took place on the Helden Platz, where even the roofs of telephone boxes were covered with spectators, lasted two hours.

Before the parade, nearly 400 German planes flew in successive arrow formations over the city, completing the demonstration of armed might which was taking place below.

Capt. von Papen

At the grandstand, Herr Hitler greeted representatives of Vienna, and also spoke a few words to Capt. von Papen, German Ambassador to Austria.

Many former Austrian troops wore the German emblem of the Reich as they march past the Fuehrer. The Prussian and Wurttemberg regiments also participated in the march past.

Later, Herr Hitler left for Munich by air.—(Reuter).

CAROL'S TRIP CALLED OFF

London, March 15. It was announced from Buckingham Palace today that King Carol's visit to England has been postponed in view of the recent developments in the international situation.—(Reuter).

Foundation For Further Expansion Embodied In Estimates Before Commons

London, March 15. A speeding-up of air armament efforts was the recurring point of emphasis in the speech by Lieut.-Colonel A. J. Muirhead, Under-Secretary of State for War, when introducing the Air Estimates to the House of Commons today.

He showed that estimated expenditure was £103,000,000 (including £30,000,000 to be defrayed by the Defence Loan) which represented 25 per cent. increase on the expenditure of last year.

The estimates include the foundation for further expansion beyond the current programme.

Amplifying the particulars he disclosed on February 3, Lieut.-Colonel Muirhead said that in addition to the Metropolitan Air Force of 123 squadrons, there were 28 squadrons overseas and the Fleet Air Arm comprised 20 squadrons, adding: "We are midway between the 1,500 first-line aircraft aimed at for March, 1937, and the 1,750 for next year."

An output from "shadow" factories was expected very shortly, he said.

Orders for certain instruments in connection with blind flying had been temporarily placed with America in order to leave nothing undone to achieve actual efficiency as soon as possible.

With regard to works abroad, progress had been made in the provision of accommodation in the Far East.

Col. Muirhead added: "May I express gratitude for the generous gift of £2,500,000 from rulers in the Federated Malay States towards the cost of additional squadrons to be stationed in Malaya." (Cheers).

Col. Muirhead said that in consequence of the obstacles met in turning guns by hand against the rush of air, owing to the greatly increased speed in aircraft, revolving turrets, enclosing both man and gun, were being installed.

In this essential requirement there was every reason to believe that Britain was better off than any foreign country.

INDEPENDENT INQUIRY URGED

London, March 15. For the Labour Party, Mr. F. Montague demanded an independent inquiry into the military side of the Air Ministry on the lines of the Cadman Report and spoke of criticism and unfavourable rumours in circulation regarding organisation of rearmament in the air.

SCHUSCHNIGG'S WHEREABOUTS A MYSTERY

London, March 16.

A report from Berlin to the effect that Dr. Kurt von Schuschnigg is now staying with Count Esterhazy in Hungary is emphatically denied by the Count's secretary, who in response to a telephone call from London said that Dr. Schuschnigg had not arrived and was not expected.—(Reuter).

SUDETEN GERMANS IN CZECHOSLOVAKIA

Important Statement Made in Parliament

Prague, March 16. Konrad Henlein, leader of the Sudeten Germans in Czechoslovakia, instructed his deputy, Karl Hermann Frank, to make an important statement in the Czech Parliament when it met in session yesterday.

After making reference to the happenings in Austria, Frank sharply attacked the attitude adopted by the Czechoslovakian Parliament towards the Sudeten Party.

Sudeten Germans, he declared, had to oppose and must continue to oppose the fate which seeks, by making use of all means of compulsion, to hasten their gradual strangulation.

Sudeten Germans, he went on to insist, have awakened to a new life and in the Sudeten Party there has been created an instrument of political struggle.

Those in control of affairs in Czechoslovakia still refused to face this reality. The statesmanship demands at this moment, declared Frank, that instead of getting excited about what is happening to German groups beyond its frontiers, the Czechoslovakian Government should take the initiative and create a condition that will no longer give cause for complaint and grievance.

What both Sudeten Germans and the Czechoslovakian State would gain by the reorganisation of inner political conditions are plain to every one, said Frank.

The statement concluded with the words, "We solemnly declare that we are as little able to identify ourselves with the goal of the Czechoslovakian State as with the declarations made by the government in February last year regarding our status, but we are compelled and are resolved to fight with increased energy for our political rights, our cultural liberty and economic and social security."—(Transocean).

MORROW: FLORA ROBSON - LAWRENCE OLIVIER

A recent caller at Australia House, London, a Rumanian woman who wanted to migrate to Australia, was asked whether she possessed the necessary finances. She opened a suitcase which contained £7000 in English notes. Officials escorted her to the Australia House branch of the Commonwealth Bank, where she opened an account.

The new Director of the Police Bureau in Hankow, Commandant Fang Chao, and his Chief Secretary, Mr. Lei Ching-kwei, assumed their duties on March 1, states a dispatch to the "Sin Wen Pao."

For having worn nail-studded boots that left swastika imprints on Czechoslovakian soil, a young Austrian who crossed the frontier was arrested. This is apparently the latest method of spreading Nazi propaganda.

The driver, David Anderson, of the Edinburgh-Glasgow express which was involved in a fatal crash in December, has been charged with culpable homicide.

ANNA MAY WONG RETURNS

Reappears In "Daughter Of Shanghai"

A smashing expose of alien smuggling, packed with mystery, action, drama and romance is what makes "Daughter of Shanghai," which opens at the Queen's Theatre today, one of the most interesting and thoroughly satisfying pictures of the current season. The plot is based on the billion-dollar racket, which has sprung up in recent years, of bringing aliens into the United States illegally. Once a "business" in which only Chinese were brought in by smugglers, recent changes in immigration laws as well as the tightening conditions in many foreign countries have made the racket an international menace.

The action opens in the shop of a wealthy Chinese merchant in San Francisco. He is murdered when he refuses to take a hand in the smuggling game and his daughter, played by exotic Anna May Wong, vows to run his murderers to earth.

Besides Miss Wong, who performs with her usual charm and skill, the cast boasts such brilliant players as Charles Bickford, Larry Crabbe, Cecil Cunningham, J. Carroll Nash, Anthony Quinn, John Patterson and Evelyn Brent.

ADVENTURE'S END

Thrilling Sea Story

A thrilling sea story framed against a Southern Seas canvas, Universal's "Adventure's End" showing today at the Alhambra Theatre with John Wayne and Diana Gibson in the leading roles.

The story was written by the novelist Ben Ames Williams and was produced by Trem Carr with Arthur Lubin directing. It tells of the love of Miss Gibson for Wayne who comes on board the whaling vessel after he has obtained a rich fortune in pearls "despite the efforts of natives to kill him."

No sooner is Wayne safely aboard the vessel than he is attacked by Moroni Olsen, playing the role of first mate. Olsen, notices the curious manner with which Miss Gibson watches Wayne and correctly suspects that she is interested in the newcomer.

The story reaches a surprising climax following a mutiny at sea, a hurricane, and a tremendous struggle between a crew of men in a small boat who harpoon a whale.

FILM COMPANY REFUSES DUKE'S REQUEST

A request by the Duke of Windsor's solicitors to Kine Films Ltd., not to release the 16 mm. news reels of the Duke's activities, including his wedding, which were being sent to America, has been refused.

The company pointed out that, as several copies of the films had already been in private circulation in England, and as they contained nothing defamatory, there appeared to be no reason for their withdrawal.

Surplus Of "Dead Marines"

A month ago a Perth bottle merchant read in the newspapers of Darwin's colossal bottle surplus, and hurried here by plane, states a special message from Darwin.

The monsoonal rains arrived first, however, and when the merchant stepped off the plane dense tropical grasses had grown over thousands of neglected empties scattered round the town and spread alongside every road and track.

The bottle merchant accused newspaper representatives in Darwin of gross exaggeration, and even threatened to take legal action for recovery of the amount of his fare.

However, he engaged a local man on contract to collect what empties were available. As a result, the merchant now has a bill for £600, representing four weeks' work by the man whom he engaged. With the assistance of a motor truck and one black boy, 6000 dozen bottles have been collected from around the town in one month.

TO BE WITNESS

Wallace Beery, famous character actor, will be witness at the wedding of Greta Garbo and Leopold Stokowski.

PERFORMING FLEAS KILLED

Owner's Claim Against Landlady

Alleging that his landlady killed a number of his performing fleas, Kaiman Hosszu, a circus artist, has brought a claim for £8 damages against her in the Debrecen court, Budapest.

The landlady, Mme Istvan Boros, is counter-claiming £12 against the lodger for damage to her furniture.

According to the story told in court, M. Hosszu returned to his lodgings one day and found his trained fleas dead in the box in which he kept them. Apparently the room had been sprayed with insecticide when being cleaned and some of this had got into the box.

Shouting "You're a murderer! You've killed them!" he threw himself on the floor, sobbing and beating his forehead with his fists.

Then, in a paroxysm of rage, he is alleged by the landlady to have smashed the furniture.

Answering these allegations in court, Hosszu said: "I am a flea trainer. The trained fleas gave me my living. They were so intelligent that I called them by their names and they knew me."

The case has aroused great interest in Debrecen and the decision of the court is eagerly awaited.

WHEN FIRST COUSINS MARRY

The first-born child of a marriage between first cousins is more likely to develop an unbalanced mind than children of parents who are not related.

This fact was mentioned by a doctor at the inquest on Mrs. Lizzie Robinson and her 27-year-old son, John Thomas Paul Robinson, who were found shot dead at a farm near Wolverton, Bucks recently.

The verdict was that Mrs. Robinson was murdered by her son and that he committed suicide during temporary insanity.

The mother opposed her son's marriage to 24-year-old Kitty Neal, of Stony Stratford, who said she thought the reason for the opposition was that Robinson was in a better social position than she was.

£916,000 A YEAR

For Imperial Airway

(By Air Mail)

With the extension of the Empire air mail scheme from India to Malaya, Imperial Airways, Ltd., will receive £916,000 a year from the Government, according to the Evening Standard.

The Postmaster-General will pay at the rate of £519,000 per annum from the Post Office vote for the carriage of mails, while a subsidy at the rate of £397,000 per annum will be paid from air votes, the latter being paid by monthly instalments in advance.

These two payments have been based on estimates of revenue and expenditure agreed between the Air Ministry and the company, and the amount of subsidy will be adjusted on revision.

The subsidy payment will be reduced by any saving made by the company on the insurance of the aircraft.

Should the revenue fall below the estimate, the difference, with a maximum rate of £81,000 per annum, will be paid to the company as additional subsidy. Any excess of revenue will be deducted from the subsidy.

MICHAEL STROGOFF

Dramatic Moments

Intense Dramatic Moments
If it were possible to record the dramatic intensity of a motion picture scene on a dial, movie critics believe that the blinding sequence in the thrilling spectacle film "Michael Strogoff" would register a full 100 percent.

This sequence, one of the many breathless moments in the famous tale of a Russian courier's efforts to reach a beleaguered army in Siberia during a Tatar rebellion, occurs when the courier is captured by the rebels and sentenced to be blinded by having a white-hot sword passed before his eyes.

The giant cast of more than 10,000 persons is another unique feature of "Michael Strogoff," showing at the Majestic Theatre.

This number of "actors" includes 10,000 Bulgarian soldiers who participate in the astounding climactic battle sequences; and the dramatic cast comprising Anton Walbrook, International favorite, Elizabeth Allan, Akim Tamiroff, Margot Grahame, Fay Bainter, Eric Blore and Paul Guilfoyle. George Nicholls, Jr., directed this RKO Radio picture, a classic of the Jules Verne adventure classic.

A further statement on the future of the Fleet Air Arm is made in Admiralty Fleet Orders, issued recently. When the transfer to Admiralty control has been effected the necessary officers for flying duties will be provided from:

(1) Executive officers of the Royal Navy and officers of the Fleet Air Arm; (2) officers entered on a short-service basis, especially for air work, who will form the "Air" or "A" Branch. The first entries of the latter will be made in April, and it is at present intended that they shall begin their preliminary three months' naval training at Devonport. The conditions under which R.A.F. officers may be permitted to transfer to the "A" Branch of the R.N. will be promulgated shortly.

DOMINION COOPERATION

The cruisers of the New Zealand Division, under Rear-Admiral E. R. Drummond, have concluded their visit to Australia in connexion with the 150th anniversary celebrations. They have been in Commonwealth waters for a month. The Achilles, flagship, will visit Bluff and Dunedin. The Leander will visit Wellington and other New Zealand ports. Both ships will continue cruising till about the end of April.

CHINA FLEET STAFF

The appointments date from February 20 of Commanders R. F. Elkins and E. G. A. Clifford to the Cumberland, flagship in China. The former will be fleet gunnery officer, in succession to Commander K. M. L. Robinson. Commander Elkins was promoted in June last when gunnery officer

JUDGE FIXES VALUE OF A LIFE

"What is life worth to the average man with its joys, disappointments and sorrows?" Judge Greaves-Lord asked a King's Bench jury in London—and answering his own question, awarded £1500 damages to the father and twin sister of eight-year-old Hilda P. Trubyfield.

Hilda was killed by a dray out of her home in Swinton Road, Cheltenham. Her father claimed damages for the child's loss of the normal expectation of life.

Special damages, agreed at £21 and £50, were paid for the pain and suffering the child endured after the accident. The sister was awarded agreed damages of £25 "for the shock of seeing her sister killed."

"Claim for the loss of the normal expectation of life is a rather peculiar one. It presents a difficult problem," said the Judge.

"What, after all, is life?" he added. Then he quoted Du Maurier's lines:—

"A little work, a little play, to keep us going—
And so, good day.
A little warmth, a little light, of love's bestowing—
And so, good night.
A little fun to match the sorrow of each day's going—
And so, good morrow."

SERIOUS VIEW OF ANTI-BRITISH PROPAGANDA

Cabinet members, especially the Prime Minister, take a serious view of Anti-British propaganda, not only in foreign countries, but in the Dominions and Colonies, states a special message from London.

The committee appointed under the chairmanship of the Adviser to the Foreign Office (Sir Robert Vansittart) is expected to make far-reaching recommendations to the Government.

It will particularly investigate the dissemination of news in the Dominions through foreign news agencies and broadcasts.

MODERATIONS IN DIVORCE

Bachelor Again

Prince Vivat (Magdalene, Cambridge), head of the Siamese Customs, in proposing the toast of Oxford at the recent Oxford-Cambridge dinner, said the Bill introduced in the Commons by the Member for Oxford University, Mr. A. P. Herbert, marked the first step in what would surely be known as man's recovery of his matrimonial autonomy.

He, for one, would not be surprised if at some future date, divorce were made part of the curriculum at Oxford. The undergraduate would be required to pass Moderations in Divorce. He might then proceed to the M. A. degree, which would mean married again; and the B.A. degree, which might be taken, say, six months afterwards, would mean Bachelor Again. And there would be no restriction on the number of times that one might take these two degrees.

He could see the day when the dons of Oxford would become quite as famous as the stars of Hollywood.

The Control Commissioner for Chekiang and Fukien provinces, Mr. Chen Chao-ying, has arrived in Kinkua to confer with the authorities of the Chekiang Provincial Government over a project for the settlement of 50,000 Chekiang refugees in Chungking district in North Fukien, states a message to the China Daily News. The population of Chungking, which is a well-known tea growing town, has recently been decreased by one half as a result of a war-time exodus, it is stated.

The Ministry of Education has promulgated regulations governing schools in various war zones, says a dispatch to the Sin Wen Pao. According to these regulations, the status of schools which have been opened in the war zones after their fall to the Japanese, without the approval of the Ministry, will not be recognized. The status of schools, opened in these zones before their fall to the Japanese, which have carried on without reporting their reopening to the Ministry for its approval, will also not be recognized.

UNION TRADING COMPANY BRINGS CLAIM

Importance Of Chinese Chop Stressed

SALE OF OLD NEWSPAPERS

The Union Trading Company were plaintiffs in a claim for $6,189.48, being the price of old newspapers bargained for and sold, heard before the Chief Justice, Sir Atholl MacGregor, in the Supreme Court yesterday.

Defendants were the Kwok Man Chau Ka and Chui Chui-ling, manager, the new Kwok Man Chau Ka, the Tung Hing Company, and Li Po-yuen, partner thereof.

Plaintiffs were represented by the Hon. Mr. Leo D'Almada Jnr., instructed by Mr. M. A. da Silva, and Mr. H. Somerset Fitzroy, instructed by Mr. C. A. Sutherland Russ, appeared for the defence.

Mr. D'Almada said the claim was originally against the first two defendants, but was subsequently amended to include the others under the Fraudulent Business Ordinance. The sole proprietor of the Kwok Man Chau Ka was Chiu Kwok, and the Tung Hing Company were the transferees of the business.

The defence filed by Chiu Kwok was a denial that he entered into any contracts with plaintiffs, and that even if they were made they were entered into without his authority or permission.

The case for the plaintiff was that the goods were ordered by the Kwok Man Chau Ka through someone authorised so to do. From April, 1936 to November, 1937, there had been a series of transactions, over 20 contracts in number, between plaintiffs and defendants, for old newspapers.

The orders were mostly given by an employee of the Kwok Man Chau Ka, a man named Chan Tok, "alias" Chan Kwok-man. Deliveries were made by delivery order and the contracts were chopped with the chop of defendant firm, mostly by Chan Tok.

Continuing, Counsel said the business chop of a Chinese firm was a matter of the greatest importance; to entrust it to anyone was tantamount to granting him a power of attorney. It was therefore extremely improbable that a chop could have been affixed to any contract without the knowledge and authority of the owner.

LAWYER TESTIFIES

Subpoenaed as witness, H. A. de B. Botelho, of the firm of Messrs. Leo, D'Almada and Company, Solicitors, claimed privilege in reply to the first question put him by Mr. D'Almada as to whether he acted for the Kwok Man Chau Ka in November and December last year. His Lordship ruled that he could answer questions up to a point.

Mr. Botelho then said he did on November 23 a bill of sale was executed in his office by Chui Kwok. He himself attended to the execution, which was on the instructions of Chui Kwok.

On November 30 he received instructions to write letters to plaintiffs' firm from Chui Chui-ling, who was supposed to be the manager of Chui Kwok. Chui Chui-ling had been present at the execution of the bill of sale.

His firm had also had instructions from the "Kwok Man Chau Ka" in certain other matters in connection with the China Provident Loan and Mortgage Co. Ltd. In this case Chui Chui-ling had seen him. Those matters were in connection with loans on certain newspapers made by the China Provident.

CHOP ALWAYS USED

Ho Wing, comrade of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank, called as an expert on Chinese business customs, said he had had extensive experience of Chinese business firms.

Chinese firms always used a chop in their business. This chop was regarded as of great importance and it represented the firm.

Cross-examining, Mr. Fitzroy asked: You are the comrade of a very big firm, do they use a chop?

Witness: I have a chop of my own, with my name on it. Have you ever known of a forged chop?—Yes.

S. M. Churn said he was the managing director of the plaintiff company. In April 1936, till November 1937 his firm entered into contracts with the Kwok Man Chau Ka for the sale of old newspapers. There were a string of contracts during that period and there were some even earlier than that.

In answer to Mr. Fitzroy, witness said the contracts were made in his own office under his direction. He had never seen Chui Kwok before.

EXECUTED LOANS

Mr. Tam Hung, of the China Provident, said he had made loans from time to time to the Kwok Man Chau Ka. Chan Tok, alias Chan Kwok-man, had executed these loans.

Mok Shau-tsung, comrade of the plaintiff firm, said he had personal knowledge of the contracts entered into by his company with the Kwok Man Chau Ka. These contracts began in January 1935 and continued up to November 1937. They had not taken delivery of the goods in the last two contracts. This came to roughly $3,000.

Mr. Fung Chan-po, broker, said he negotiated contracts between the two parties for old newspapers over a period of a year.

L. C. Millington, bailiff, said he made an attempt to serve a subpoena on Lee Yung who held the bill of sale, but was told by the occupants of 264, Queen's Road Central, that they knew nothing of the woman.

Mr. Fitzroy submitted he had no case to answer, but, following a reply by Mr. D'Almada, his Lordship ruled he had.

THE DEFENCE

Chui Kwok said he was the sole proprietor of the Kwok Man Chau Ka up to December last. It was a restaurant business. He never had any contracts with the Union Trading Company and he never dealt in old newspapers.

He had two shops in his firm, one was the correspondence chop and the other used in connection with business. The chop was kept in a drawer of the counter, to which all the tokis had access.

Since December the Tung Hing Company had paid the rent for the Kwok Man Chau Ka premises. That was when he had entered into an agreement with the Tung Hing Co. and since that date he had not had any interest in the firm. The same sign-board, Kwok Man Chau Ka, was used for the Tung Hing Company.

Witness was not a partner in the Tung Hing, nor in the new Kwok Man Chau Ka.

NEW OWNER

In cross-examination, witness said Mr. Li Po-yuen was the new owner of the Kwok Man Chau Ka. He (witness) had let out the furniture and fittings for a period of five years.

Mr. D'Almada: Why did you transfer the company to the Tung Hing?

Witness: It was not a transfer at all.

Why did you let it out then?—Because I am too old and lack spirit.

Witness denied that he had done this because of orders from the Public Works Department regarding certain alterations to the premises. He admitted that he still visited the place now and again.

The hearing was adjourned till this morning.

BOY'S DEATH INQUIRY

Ran Into Police
Motor Cycle

An inquiry into the death of an 8-year-old boy, Lau Kau-wang, who died as a result of a traffic mishap on February 16, was conducted by Mr. H. R. Butters at the Central Magistracy yesterday.

The jury, comprise Messrs. John David Humphreys (foreman), George Kelly and William Hyde returned a verdict of death by misadventure with no blame attached to the driver of the motor-cycle.

Medical evidence was heard to the effect that the child died six days after admission to the Queen Mary Hospital on February 22. The cause of death was fracture of the skull and internal scalp injuries.

An eye-witness of the accident gave evidence and stated that at the time of the accident the motor-cycle which was driven by a Police Officer, was going at a normal speed. Deceased was attempting to run from one side of Wyndham Street to the other.

SERGEANT'S EVIDENCE

Traffic Sergeant L. C. Pennell stated that on February 16 he was on motor-cycle patrol. He was riding on cycle No. 497 about 1.05 p.m. and was proceeding along Wyndham Street. When about 15 yards from the steps leading to Arbuthnot Road, a light van coming in the opposite direction passed him.

Immediately after passing the van he saw a Chinese boy running towards his motor cycle. He was about two yards from the boy, who tried to run from one side of the road to the other. Witness had time enough only to shut off his engine and swerve slightly to the left, but the boy collided with the machine.

JURY'S SYMPATHY

The speed witness was travelling at the time was from 20 to 22 miles per hour. Witness pulled up about 8 yards from the scene of the accident, picked up the boy, but him in a passing motor car and took him to the Central Police Station, from where he was transferred into an ambulance and taken to the Queen Mary Hospital. He was bleeding profusely from the left side of the skull.

Lau Kim, father of the child, gave evidence of identification.

After the jury had returned their verdict, the Magistrate remarked to them that he had no doubt that they would join him in an expression of sympathy to the father of the deceased boy. The Foreman, on behalf of the jury suitably replied.

COMBINED EXERCISES

Communique Issued

Hong Kong's annual combined exercises are now in progress and yesterday the first official communique was issued.

"King No Kum Yu's Government spent the night of March 15-16 in a fever of diplomatic activity in the hope of discovering a formula to explain away the King's somewhat brusque and inconsiderate reply to King Pacifica's request for the hand of Princess So Hy without involving any loss of face to the Sovereign of Hong Kong.

As a result political tension has somewhat eased and therefore it has been decided that no action whatsoever will be taken by Hong Kong that can possibly jeopardize the successful and peaceful conclusion of the negotiations now in progress."

Facts as to troop and ship movements are at present a strict secret.

HEAVY GUN FIRE

In connection with the manoeuvres the General Officer Commanding the British Troops in China, warns the civil population of the Colony that it may expect to hear considerable heavy gun and small arms fire during the forthcoming combined operations between March 18 and 22.

NAZIS MAY SEIZE CHURCH LANDS

A clear hint that the new relations between Church and State in Germany may result in the expropriation of Church property is given by the Schwarzer Korps, the official organ of the black-uniformed Nazi protective guards, who form the most anti-Christian element in the State, writes the Berlin correspondent of the London Daily Telegraph.

Other papers have been instructed to reproduce the most important passages in the article. "One day," it states, "we shall not be able to avoid the fateful task of establishing to whom so-called Church property really belongs. These possessions came into the hands of the Churches through the joint efforts of the community at a time when State and Church were still united."

"It cannot be assumed that the possessions of the community have suddenly become the legal property of Churches which have nothing in common with what was formerly meant by Churches except the name."

RECORD ATTENDANCE AT
WEEKLY RIFLE SHOOT

Cory And Baker Do Well

The mid-week Spoon and Practice Shoot held by the Hong Kong Rifle Association on the Army Ranges at Kowloon City yesterday afternoon was marked by three special features, firstly, the "century" scored by Mr. Cory of the Dockyard Rifle Club, using the "1914" rifle; secondly, the unusually high score made by L/Cpl. Baker of the 1st Bn. The Middlesex Regiment, whose aggregate was 93 in the same competition, using the rifle "as issued," and thirdly, the increase in attendance which in actual number totalled 116, taxing the target accommodation to the utmost.

Conditions were very favourable, as the wind remained fairly constant throughout, both in direction and strength, while the light from start to finish was all that could be desired. That these factors were indeed in evidence was shown by the 13 scores of 90 or over made by competitors in the S.R. (b) class, and the fact that no less than 12 members scored 80 or over using the S.R. (a) weapon.

There is little doubt that the imminence of the Prize Meeting is having a marked effect both on keenness, and the numbers of members who are participating in these shoots, and that this should be the case is particularly gratifying when it is remembered that during the season, which is now coming to an end, matters have been far from normal, owing to the absence of so many members in the north, and the transfer at the beginning of the year of two battalions to other stations.

It is regretted that by an oversight, the results of the week-end shooting on the Naval Range at Stonecutters last Saturday week was not given in the report issued a week ago, and advantage is accordingly being taken to include these results with those for last Saturday, at the end of this article.

As will be seen from the scores given below, the spoon-winners of yesterday's shoot were as follows:—

S.R. (b): Mr. H. W. Cory, D.R.C. (nett); Roy J. Payne, 1/Seaforth. Cpl. J. H. Singleton, R.A.O.C. and L/Cpl. W. Ure, 1/Midd'x. R. (handicap spoons).

S.R. (a): L/Cpl. T. F. Baker, 1/Midd'x. R. (nett); Pte. V. M. Hammond, H.K.V.D.C. Pte. A. Howe, 1/Midd'x. R., A.B. P. Wharton, R.N., and Bdsman A. Veryard, 1/Midd'x. R. (handicap spoons).

The leading scores made yesterday afternoon were as follows:

War correspondents are generally handsomely paid by their employers. What is the necessity, therefore, for the Chinese to bribe them to do the very work for which they are sent?

If the Japanese allegation is that the stories of atrocities in Nanking, Hangchow, Wuhu and other places were fabrications "for the purpose of injuring the honour of the Japanese army" it is strange that eminent foreign missionaries bear out these stories.

The present writer recently interviewed an American mission doctor from the interior of China, on behalf of a London newspaper, and heard a story before which mediaeval barbarities pale.

Interesting light is thrown on the Japanese accusation by the experience of a member of the staff of this newspaper. Wishing to travel from Canton to Hankow in order to "cover" the war recently, he endeavoured to enlist the aid of the Chinese Government but failed, even a free railway transportation request being promptly turned down. And this to a newspaper which had been vigorously voicing the justice of China's cause ever since the outbreak of hostilities.

Finally, it seems strange that the excellent Japanese intelligence service, of which the world has been hearing such glowing reports, should have taken over three months to discover such important papers as alleged to have been found in Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's residence in Nanking. Being an ordinary human being, we are inclined to the belief that the Generalissimo's house would have been one of the, if not the, first place to receive a thorough search from the invaders after the fall of Nanking. And yet this important discovery was not made until three months later. But, of course, the Japanese are not just ordinary human beings.

The truth of the matter would appear to be that Japan has belatedly begun to realise the tremendous adverse effect that her misdeeds have had in the outside world. Even Asiatic countries have recoiled from the frightful mediaeval passion for lust and mass murder of the so-called "liberators" of the Asiatics—the civilised race which preaches so much about "Asia for the Asiatics."

Japan has aroused the deepest suspicions of all Asiatics by her conduct in China, and the army leaders in China are at last taking account of the human factor. The best way of doing that, they apparently believe, is to cast aspersions on the veracity and integrity of foreign journalists.

That will fool nobody. The long history of the finest journalistic traditions behind Reuters is sufficient answer to the preposterous claim that the firm could be bribed deliberately to fabricate news.

JAPAN'S BRIBERY
CHARGE

The Japanese indictment of bribery against foreign journalists, newspaper correspondents and news agencies in China is sufficiently ludicrous to warrant its being completely ignored but for the seriousness of the charge.

Although the Japanese have singled out the Reuter news agency, the veracity and integrity of all foreign journalists in China has been impugned.

It seems obvious that the charge has been brought chiefly owing to the failure of Japanese propaganda abroad and the conspicuous success of the Chinese cause.

In the face of the known facts, for the Chinese Government to "bribe" foreign correspondents is as great an extravagance and a waste of good money as it is for Japan to send "goodwill" missions abroad.

Why? To a war correspondent a human interest story is worth far more than half a dozen stories of troop movements or heavy political news, and the barbarous conduct of Japan's fighting forces in China gave the journalists just such material as they wanted. That, as we said the other day, was Japan's greatest blunder—the disregard of the human factor.

Violent fighting is again taking place this morning on the northern section of the Tientsin-Pukow Railway where the Chinese forces are meeting with considerable success.

One of the Japanese brigades that had been besieged by the 8th Route Army in southern Shansi retreated towards Linfen, while another 2,000 Japanese forces under the command of Major-General Dohara were forced to evacuate Menghsien.

The 3,000 Japanese that had crossed the Yellow River from Hoku were driven back to the eastern shore. Meanwhile the Chinese forces are storming Wuchai in an effort to cut off the Japanese retreat at Hoku from the rear.—(International).

Three hundred Chinese carpenters in Peiping have recently been drafted by the Japanese for building hangars on the aerodromes at Nanyuan and Siyuan, in the outskirts of the ancient capital, according to a Peiping report.

In order to clear the areas south of Kaopettien, Tingsien and Hsuehshui along the Peiping-Hankow Railway of Chinese guerrillas, the Japanese are planning a wholesale destruction of the villages in the areas by an artillery bombardment, the report further revealed.—(Central News).

NATIONAL MOBILISATION BILL IS APPROVED

Following Government's Assurances

Tokyo, March 16.

After several days of acrimonious inter-party negotiations leaders of the Minseitō and Seiyūkai Parties finally decided, shortly after midnight, to approve the original National Mobilisation Bill following the Government's assurances that firstly, the Commission mentioned in Article 50 of the Bill shall be composed in the majority of members of the Diet and, secondly, that Government will define more exactly the latter part of Article 1 regarding defence in "time of war and quasi war" and also the word "business" in Article 31.

Attlee Wants Premier To State Policy

London, March 16.

The Commons debate on the Austrian question had a sequel yesterday when the Labour Leader, Major Clement Attlee, interpellated the Prime Minister, Mr. Chamberlain, regarding the declaration on the foreign political situation which the Prime Minister had promised to make in his statement on Monday.

Major Attlee complained that the Prime Minister's statement failed to contain any information regarding the policy which the Government proposed to pursue in the future and asked the Prime Minister whether he would make the promised declaration within the week.

The Prime Minister replied that this would be impossible. He declared that he had already emphasised on Monday that a new situation had arisen through the latest developments and that this new situation with the resulting consequences were now being examined by the Government.

Mr. Chamberlain stressed that he did not intend in any case to commit himself for the future at this time.—(Transocean).

CORRESPONDENCE

CIVILIANS AND THE SERVICES

[To the Editor, "The Hong Kong Daily Press".]

Sir,—Having arrived back in the Colony I would like to reopen the subject of "Civilians and the Services."

I should like very much if you would arrange a meeting with "Bee," whom I had the pleasure of meeting the last time I was here but with whom I did not have sufficient time to go into the above-mentioned subject with thoroughness.

A NAVAL PETTY OFFICER.

A dinner was held by members of the Kowloon Union Church Social and Fellowship Club in the hall of the Kowloon Union Church last night when a large number of members and their guests were present.

PAUL KONG'S CLOSE TENNIS TUSSLE WITH J. W. LEONARD

BUT PLAY WAS DULL IN TENNIS TOURNAMENT

Winner's Steadiness Gained Him Crucial Set

Scores of 6-1, 6-4 generally do not indicate anything like a close struggle, but it is a fact that J. W. Leonard, Craigswater Cricket Club representative, gave Paul Kong, one-time Chinese Davis Cup star, a very hard fight in their match in the Colony Open Tennis Singles championship at the Hong Kong Cricket Club ground yesterday.

The second set was anybody's, and the general opinion was that if Leonard had been able to take it he would have won the match, for though he was by no means fresh himself, he was in better condition at the finish than Kong, who was showing definite signs of bellows to mend. Even the first set was a closer affair than the margin of 6-1 shows, though here Kong had plenty in reserve.

The biggest crowd thus far in the tournament watched this match and though at times the play reached depths of dullness owing to the safety-first tactics indulged in from both sides of the net, the game as a whole was interesting for its lighter moments and for the fact that neither player ever let up an inch. It was also a pleasure to watch Kong scheme his movements stroke by stroke and the palms he took over advances to the net received its just reward in the many winners he scored from there.

Leonard, on the other hand, was terribly weak at the net, and this, together with his playing an ultra-defensive game all through, contributed in large measure to his defeat.

Kong was much the better player at the beginning, when he merely stood in the centre of the court and directed shots where he liked. For all that, a fair number of games went to deuce and had Leonard been more consistent he would have taken more than a single game.

KONG FALLS OFF

Having won the opening set, the Chinese fell off, and Leonard took the first two games of the next.

Kong then came back to level at 2-2, but Leonard again won the fifth. This was where he made his big mistake. He should have carried the attack into the enemy's camp but instead continued his pat-ball tactics, which was just what Kong wanted to give him breathing space.

He recovered, to take the next game after trailing, and won the seventh to lead 4-3.

It was Leonard's turn to recover, now, however, and against the run of play, he levelled at 4-4. Here again he made an error in tactics. Though Kong had obviously been conserving his energies, he was getting very tired and had pressure been put on he might have wilted. As it was, Leonard was quite content to return the ball, which eminently suited Kong, who was seldom or never the man who made the mistake at the end of this kind of a rally. He took this game, and held set point in the next, but Leonard saved this and two more deuces were called before Kong finally went out with a magnificent drive down the lines.

TSUI'S PRACTICE MATCH

Tsui Yan-pui was never extended enough by Pang O-lam to show what he is likely to do when the opposition gets sterner, but he won comfortably and always appeared to have something in hand.

Frank Kwok beat Cheng Ping-yuen, a club-mate, after a titanic second-set struggle.

SCOTTISH SIDE CHOSEN

Selection Method Criticised

ROYAL SCOTS FORM BULK OF TEAM

(BY R. H. B.) Following a match against the Hong Kong Hockey Club at King's Park yesterday afternoon, Scotland's team for the Association International Hockey Tournament was selected.

The team is as follows:—

Sgt. Waddell (Royal Scots); Capt. Harland (Royal Scots) and Flight-Lieut. Wallace (R.A.F.); M. MacGellan (Royal Scots); Fraser (Royal Scots) and N. B. Whitley (Club); Capt. Mackenzie-Kennedy (Royal Scots); Lieut. Douglas (Royal Scots); Capt. Loch (Kumaon Rifles); Lieut. Paterson (Royal Scots) and Mickle (Royal Scots).

In yesterday's match, which was far from interesting, the score was a draw of one goal all. S. Fowler netting for the Club, and Edgar Reed, the Club's left back, having the misfortune to deflect the ball into his own net in the second half.

The representative Scottish side was best served by Douglas, Loch, Harland, McLellan and Wilson (in goal during the first half) while Potter, Edgar and W. A. Reed, T. Whitley and Divett played well for the Club.

The system employed by the Scottish selectors in choosing the final team is open to some criticism. The method of frequent changes made in the team during the progress of the match was wrong.

A more proper method would have been to select Probables against Possibles and then get together what is likely to be the finally selected team and provide them with strong opposition.

The Club team was as follows:—

V. M. Benwell; J. E. Potter and E. V. Reed; L. Starbuck, W. A. Reed and N. B. Whitley; S. Fowler, T. S. D. Whitley, G. E. R. Divett, G. Sommer and B. I. Bickford.

INDIA'S TRIAL

In connection with the International Hockey Tournament India will be holding their first trial game on March 25. The Rajputana Rifles will provide the opposition.

The game is to be played at Prince Edward Road ground, bully-off at 4.30 p.m.

The following will represent India:—M. Ramzan (K.I.T.C.), G. Singh (Kowloon Indians), Telok (Kowloon Indians), Tara Singh (H.K.S.R.A.), Hussain (Radio), Malik (Kowloon Indians), Teja Singh (Police), G. Singh (Radio), T. Singh (Kowloon Indians), Khuda Bux (H.K.S.R.A.) and Parlaub (Kumaon Rifles).

CRICKET REPLAY

As predicted in our issue of yesterday, Saturday, March 26 has been officially fixed for the cricket play-off between the Indian Recreation Club and Craigswater Cricket Club.

The Hong Kong Cricket Club ground is the venue.

Expectations are that the Indians will win, though a close game is anticipated, and a draw is possible.

St. Stephen's College will hold its annual sports on Saturday at Stanley. The programme commences at 2.10 p.m. and special buses will leave the Vehicular Ferry Pier at 1.30 p.m. Mrs. G. W. Pope will present the prizes.

The Gillette No. 77 Set illustrated here, which contains the latest Gillette razor, three Blue Gillette slotted blades and two blade holders in a new type of moulded box, has these definite advantages.

The razor is made in two pieces instead of three, as formerly, thus making it easier and quicker to clean, assemble and use.

The blades are made by the new electrical-tempering process. They give not only closer, cleaner shaves than you have ever had before, but also more shaves per blade.

The case is ideal for hot and humid climates as it is so easy to keep clean.

Ask your dealer to show you a No. 77 Set—one of the most popular that Gillette have ever made.

A GOSPEL BEFORE THE GOSPELS

Rearranging The New Testament Books

GAP OF 30 YEARS

In the course of some work which I have recently had to do I have had occasion to consider the dates of the various books of the New Testament, writes the Very Rev. C. A. Allington, D.D., Dean of Durham, in the Daily Telegraph.

My particular conclusions are in no way important, but I realised for the first time the disadvantages of the arrangement with which we are familiar.

Perhaps I ought to apologise for drawing attention to anything so obvious, but it is just possible that some of my readers have been as slow as I was to consider the meaning of facts which they knew quite well.

There are very obvious advantages in putting the Gospel narratives at the beginning, but to do so obscures the very important and interesting fact that most of St. Paul's Epistles were written to men who had none of those narratives before them. Again the obvious contrast between the Gospel of St. John and the other three is unfairly heightened if we allow ourselves to forget that, for at least a quarter of a century before that book appeared, St. Paul had been writing to the Colossians and the Ephesians in language quite as "developed" as his, and the author of the Epistle to the Hebrews had written those great opening verses which we read on Christmas Day.

Again, there are clear reasons for grouping St. Paul's Epistles together, but none whatever for printing them, as we do, in an order which makes no attempt at chronology. One is reminded of the arrangement, or lack of it, in the Koran, which is said, I am not sure with what truth, to have proceeded simply on the principle of the length of the particular chapters.

WHEN "DISORDER" IS REALISED

There is no sort of doubt that the letters to the Thessalonians were written five or six years before that to the Romans, and some critics, with whom I myself agree place the Epistle to the Galatians earlier still. Nor is there the least question that (if we except the Pastoral Epistles) the letters to the Colossians and Ephesians represent Paul's latest utterance. Has not the ordinary reader the right to have these elementary facts made plain to him, instead of being driven to a commentary?

I feel rather ashamed of not knowing when or by whom the present order of the New Testament books determined, though, as I have said, I have no great respect for its principle. But I am still more ashamed of having taken so long to realise its badness. When we have done so, all sorts of fascinating but unanswerable problems confront us.

What, for instance, were the documents on which the early Christian preachers relied? Who were the unknown authors who gathered together the collections of sayings, parables or stories which were all they had to use for 30 years after the Resurrection? These are the questions which face anyone who attempts a research into the origins of our Gospels.

These are abstract problems and beyond the capacity of the average man; but there is one fact which he might be encouraged to grasp with firmness, and that is that any preconceptions of date which our New Testament may give him are fundamentally false; St. Matthew has no more right to come first among the Gospels than the Romans among the Epistles—and (more important though less obvious) that at least six letters of St. Paul are the earliest Christian writings that we possess. The "gospel" came into the world 30 years—more than a generation—before the Gospels.

Max Baer, the American boxer, who recently staged a come back by beating Tommy Farr, announced new resolutions following the birth of a son. These include no more drinking, smoking, or "blowing" in or out of the ring. He hopes to meet Joe Louis for the championship, when a victory would enable him "to redeem myself for all the nasty things I've done."

Sir Hubert Wilkins, who has arrived at Edmonton, still believes that the Soviet flyers who disappeared last year while flying from Moscow to San Francisco are alive and will resume his search for them.

German youth, both boys and girls whose parents are engaged in agriculture, will in future be drafted to land work, which is now regarded as skilled labour.

FUND TO HELP SWISS SMALLER CHRISTMAS TREES

Sir W. Ellis's Gift

A Trust has been established by Sir William Ellis for the benefit of Swiss mountain guides who are incapacitated by ill-health or old age. The Trust, which is to be called the "Sir William Ellis Trust for Guides of Swiss Nationality," has been endowed by Sir William with a sum of £4,000.

"Sir William stated: 'I probably owe my life to the present moment to the care and skill of Swiss guides. I have established the Trust both with the idea of doing the guides a service—many of them are very poor, and some suffer from rheumatism—and in the hope of helping to cement relations between this country and Switzerland.'

"The Trust, which is intended to provide annuities of about £100, will be administered by four trustees appointed by the Association of British Members of the Swiss Alpine Club."

Sir William, who is a Past-President of the Iron and Steel Institute, is celebrated for his climbing feats, and signalled his 75th birthday in August, 1935, by making the ascent of the Jungfrau.

To those who hold an impression—fostered by the axiom that an Englishman's house is his castle—that subjects of King George reside as a rule in vaulted baronial halls containing perhaps a minstrel's gallery or two, it must come as a mild surprise to learn that last year's demand for Christmas trees centred on those three to five feet high, and that the capacious cedars, formerly in great demand, now are sold mainly to hotels.

Does this trend toward tinier trees signify a waning of the "Christmas spirit" and all that it implies? The question has recently been answered with a mighty negative of seasonal carols, over which sounded the booming voice of Big Ben.

What though the current demand be for smaller trees? A simple holly wreath placed in a window and magnified with the true Christmas spirit dwells the most ponderous pine. So long as England continues to observe December 25 with the wholehearted unanimity of 1937, there is minor need for concern. (Christian Science Monitor.)

NEW YORK PIERS

New Ruling Concerning
Congested Wharves

As a result of the congestion on New York piers and wharves caused by importers allowing goods to remain for unduly long periods before collection, the New York Dock authorities have promulgated a ruling to the effect that inward goods will not in future be allowed to remain on piers free of charge for a longer period than ten days after unloading. This time is exclusive of Sundays and legal holidays.

Goods remaining on piers for more than the specified time will be liable to penalty charges according to a scale which becomes progressively more severe for time extensions.

In order that delay may not be caused by late arrival of documents, the New York Committee of Inward Far East Lines, has asked that this new ruling be brought to the attention of all exporters in Hong Kong and other ports from Ceylon to Japan.

The official organ of the British Empire Chamber of Commerce in the U.S.A. states that the new order will have no influence on customs procedure and will apply only to certain types of commodities on which deliveries are slow.

Foreign trade groups have urged a minimum of 20 days for free time and it is understood that efforts will be made to obtain a modification of the Commission's order.

Produced By Mr.
A.A. Barton

LIVELY ITEMS

The Royal Army Medical Corps concert party produced a non-stop variety show in the concert room of the Military Hospital on Tuesday and Wednesday nights.

The concert was produced and presented by Mr. A. A. Barton, who is well-known to local radio fans, and the show was lively from beginning to end.

The vocal and instrumental numbers were extremely well done,
and the work of the comedians, C.
Bishop, and bell-boy, J. Leverington, was the cause of keeping the audience in fits of laughter.

At the conclusion of last night's performance, a few speeches were delivered and presentations made.

The whole production was worthy of most stages and it is hoped to put it on in a bigger theatre.

NEW ROAD

Fifty thousand coolies are to be employed in building the roadway, the total cost of which is estimated at more than 1,000,000 Chinese dollars.

A new military road between Yunnanfu and Burma, frontier station of the railway from Rangon to Mandalay, in the extreme south-west of China, is to be built.

This military road will make Yunnanfu more and more the nerve centre of supply of reinforcements both in men and supplies to South China since Yun-nanfu has excellent connections with Chungking, Changsha, Kweiyang and Kwellin.—(Trans-ocean).

BADMINTON SEMI-FINALS

Some good badminton was seen at the Taikoo Club last night when the semi-finals of the Men's Doubles Championship of the Colony were decided.

The following were the scores:—
P.H. Wong and C. Au beat L.A.
Carvalho and A.M. Silva (15-2, 15-10).

P.K. Hui and K.L. Yong beat
M.A. Oliveira and J.J. Remedios
(12-13, 15-9).

FRANCESCA DENIES AT THE CHINA FLEET CLUB

A very interesting programme of songs was given last night by Francesca Denies at the China
Fleet Club in aid of the Hong Kong Women's Soldiers' Relief Association.

Francesca Denies is already well-known to Radio Listeners, who welcomed the opportunity of seeing her make a personal appearance.

Her programme covered a very wide range, since she started with two numbers for Dramatic Soprano (Senta's Ballad and Santuzza's Song). Then came one of Mimi's Songs from La Boheme (a part generally taken by Lyric Sopranos) after which she gave us the Habenera from Carmen and Dellahs Song, which are both frankly Contralto!

It is difficult for one voice to do justice to such a varied selection, but Francesca Denies tackled them all with great courage and keen dramatic feeling.

Senta's Ballad from the "Flying Dutchman" Wagner, is not an easy song without the support of an orchestra, and the singer was fortunate in having Harry Ore as her accompanist, for he did everything possible to make the piano part effective, and played those chromatic passages in brilliant style.

Mimi's lovely Farewell from Act III of La Boheme was sung with great delicacy and charm, and was most appealing; while the singer's voice was heard at its best in the contralto strains of "Mon Coeur S'Ouvre a ta Voix"—the word "Reponds a ma
tendresse" being given with deep tenderness and feeling.

Harry Ore is always popular in Hong Kong and gave some delightful piano solos in his usual accomplished manner.

The Finale (Etude Symphon-ique, by Schumann) was tremendously effective, and he also scored a great success with two little pieces by Scriabine "Prelude" and "Etude," an encore being demanded.

The programme was brought to a conclusion by four songs; two popular English ballads, and two most charming Flemish songs which were very sweetly sung the singer achieving some delightful pianissimo effects in "Kindje."
This song was most enchanting and was deservedly encored.—

RIFLE PRIZE MEETING

These competitions have been included in those which formerly comprised the "Grand" Aggregate, while the two short range events which take place in the afternoon have been added to those events which together make up the "All-Comers" Aggregate.

In addition, two new aggregates have also been instituted for the first time, one to be known as the "Long-Range" Aggregate, which includes the two long-range competitions mentioned above, and the other to be called the "Founder's Prize" Aggregate, which includes the scores made in all the events in the "All-Comers" Aggregate, plus those made in the "Long-Range" Aggregate.

These changes have been specially made in order to ensure that, as far as possible, the "All-Comers" and "Grand" Aggregates will, in the normal course, be unlikely to be won by one and the same person.

ANOTHER CHANGE

Another change which has been introduced for this year's Meeting only, is the combination of the Class X and Class M competitor, who uses the S.R. (b), or "1914"
rifle, and who will therefore shoot for the Class X Prize List only, and the restriction of the published Class M Prize List to those who wish to shoot with the S.R. (a) rifle.

In all cases the Class M competitor, irrespective of the class of rifle which he uses, will pay an entry fee of one-half that payable by the Class X member. The reason for this temporary change is that the majority of the members have had little opportunity this season to shoot with the S.R. (b) class of rifle, while the number of members who, by regulations, are compelled to shoot as Class X competitors, is extremely small.

As regards "H.E. the Governor's Prize" it should be noted that this year each of the twenty member, who qualifies to shoot in the final stage will receive not only the H.K.R.A. Silver Medal with ribbon and bars, but also a cash prize as well, and that in addition to H.E.
the Governor's cash prize of $250,
an additional $175 has been added
by the Association.

ISLINGTONIANS WIN AGAIN

Manila March 18.
The Islington Corinthians today beat the Y.C.E. Athletic Club by two goals to nil.—(Reuter).

It will be recalled that the Islingtonians, in their two previous football matches, defeated the All-Chinese team by nine goals to nil, but were held to a goalless draw by the University of Santo Tomas.
